About the Awards

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards are the nation's longest-running and most prestigious recognition program for creative teens. Since 1923, the Scholastic Awards have recognized the vision, ingenuity, and talent of our country's youth, and provided opportunities for imaginative teens to be celebrated through recognition, exhibition, publication, and scholarships. All students in grades 7-12, whether in public, private, or home schools, are encouraged to submit original works of art and writing to the Awards. The early promise of some of our nation's most accomplished and prolific creative leaders has been identified through the Awards, such as Andy Warhol, Truman Capote, Richard Avedon, Charles White, Philip Pearlstein, Sylvia Plath, Kay WalkingStick, Luis Jiménez, Ken Burns, Stephen King, Lena Dunham, Richard Linklater, and Zac Posen. Will you be next? Submit your work and find out.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards provide $300,000 in direct aid and scholarships to students and teachers, with millions more provided by national and regional Scholarship Partners.
